

A PLAIN BUSINESS TALK TO YOU

Our big stock of Clothing and Gents' Furnishings is Here, and we invite your attention to these departments of our store

Our suits are built by the best tailoring department in the land, and if you are an artistic dresser remember our Clothing will fit you better, wear longer and give you a neater and more dressy appearance than any other Clothing. We also take care of the younger folks and have a complete and full line to select from in Young Men's, Boys' and Little Fellows' Suits. If you want to fit them up for the spring and summer, you can do it here handsomely and at but little expense, too. We are the Clothing and Gents' Furnishing leaders of Chariton County.

We have the most fashionable and up-to-date line of Men's Shirts ever brought to Keytesville. Call and see them before purchasing.

Shoes for Men and Boys

Every male member of the family may share in our Shoe bargains. We carry the celebrated "Clover Brand" of Shoes, which cannot be beat for wear, comfort and durability. This store has always sold the nicest shoes, but this season we think our stock better than ever before in the history of this firm, so bring your feet with you and let us fit them up in a shoe second to none.

Hats for Men and Boys

Very often the effect of a nice suit is marred by an ill-becoming Hat. Our line is large and varied enough to fit every head artistically. We have just received an invoice of Hats that we feel sure will be the most exacting customer. The latest ideas in headwear can be procured here. The quality, that's the question. True economy is exercised in buying a Hat that suits you until it is worn out.

Yours Truly

AGEE BROS.

L. M. Applegate of this city has greatly delighted his granddaughter, Miss Louise Applegate, by presenting her with a handsome Fischer piano. Miss Louise is just now about the proudest little lady in Keytesville.

When we say wool, you can depend upon it that every fiber was once owned by a sheep. Special sheep dress goods at J. W. Wayland's.

W. M. Willett carries a full line of notions, such as pencils, pens, knives and forks, spoons, pocketknives, curling irons, tinware, glassware, and queensware, as well as a nice, clean, fresh stock of staple and fancy groceries.

If you would be sure of correct styles, buy your clothing, ladies' and gents' furnishings and dry goods of Wm. Rosenstein, Brunswick.

Mrs. E. B. Mills now has a full stock of millinery, which she takes pleasure in showing. A beautiful line of children's trimmed hats a specialty. Ladies' and misses' hats in all the latest styles including a large line of tailored hats, all at prices that make sales.

The largest and most complete assortment of dry goods in Chariton county can be found at Wm. Rosenstein's, Brunswick.

L. D. Mason of two miles north of Keytesville, who went up to Hardin, Ray county, not long since to work on a farm, returned home Thursday of last week on account of illness of rheumatism and is now at his father's, J. L. Mason's. We are sorry to hear of Don's indisposition and hope he will soon recover.

Remember when you want the very latest in clothing and gents' furnishing goods that you should call on Wm. Rosenstein, Brunswick.

WOOL WANTED.

I will pay the highest market price in cash or trade for wool. I want all I can get.

J. W. WAYLAND, Keytesville, Mo.

Sheriff F. M. Veatch took his wife to St. Louis Sunday for the past two years, will soon embark in business on his own hook, having purchased a tansorial parlor at Excelsior Springs, Mo. Success to you, James.

James Harned, who has been working in his father's barber shop in Keytesville for the past two years, will soon embark in business on his own hook, having purchased a tansorial parlor at Excelsior Springs, Mo. Success to you, James.

The following suits for the May term of circuit court have been filed with Circuit Clerk Z. T. Lamkin during the past two weeks: J. W. Simpson vs. Bohle Muehring, debt—appeal; Jos. Minor vs. Wabash Railway Co., damages—appeal; Omaha National bank vs. Richard P. James, suit on note.

I. C. Stotts, who formerly lived in this vicinity, but who is now a resident of Cody, Neb., sends us $2 on his subscription to what he is pleased to call "the old reliable CHARITON COURIER, the best county paper on earth." Such a nice compliment, especially when accompanied by cash, is very greatly appreciated at this office. Many thanks to Mr. Stotts.

Clyde Smith of Dalton has moved his family to his farm up near Eccles, where they will rusticate for the next two months in the hope of improving their health. Mr. Smith, however, will spend most of his time in Dalton looking after his interests in the hardware and agricultural implement business as a member of the firm of Iglehart & Smith.

Mrs. J. I. Carper of Brookfield has been visiting Mrs. H. T. Garnett of Keytesville, but the pleasures of her visit have been materially marred by the illness of her baby boy of measles. We are glad to learn that the little fellow is now convalescent.

The meeting at the Methodist church is being well attended and a deep interest is apparent. Rev. J. A. Snarr of Canton, Mo., is doing some plain and helpful preaching, and his singing is edifying. Services each afternoon at 3 o'clock and at 7:45 in the evening. All are cordially invited.

Word comes from O. B. Anderson of Keytesville, who left last week on a combined pleasure and business trip, intending to go as far south as San Antonio, Tex., that he had bought a 350-acre farm, four miles north of Kingman, Kas., adjoining the ranch of the same size, recently purchased of M. F. Courtney, late of this place.

Miss Wicks O'Bryan of Keytesville closed her fall and winter term of school at Newcomer Friday. Miss Wicks was hindered considerably during the term on account of measles and other maladies of a somewhat similar nature. Being one of the COURIER's piano contestants, and standing second, Miss Wicks will doubtless proceed at once to enlist the contest from now until the close—May 15.

Messrs. Taylor & Lempsey shipped a carload of "butcher stuff," and John Bushnell two carloads of hogs from Keytesville station to St. Louis Monday night. Mr. Bushnell and his brother, Steve, went to the city with the porkers, which averaged 241 pounds, and topped Tuesday's St. Louis market at $7.45 a hundred. A good-sized hog just now is bringing quite a neat sum, and when a man can top the market with two carloads of swine he has accomplished something that makes him feel good.

The stylishly gowned woman will require the American Lady Corset. They are fashioned in keeping with the newest modes of over garments. Many styles. Prices begin at $1. A shape for every figure.

Miss Lou Parks of Salisbury has resigned her clerkship in J. W. Wayland's store at this place, and Madam Rumor has it that Miss Lou will shortly take up the task of presiding over the house, home and heart of a certain young newspaper man of this county. Blair Miller has accepted the position in Mr. Wayland's store made vacant by Miss Parks' resignation. Mr. Miller has had a great deal of experience in the dry goods business and is a pleasant and reliable gentleman. Mr. Wayland is to be congratulated upon procuring Mr. Miller's services.

H. E. Kirkpatrick, who is classed among Chariton county's best and most highly esteemed young men, will become an M. D. the twenty-fifth of this month when he will graduate from the Marion Sims Beaumont Medical college of St. Louis. Not only will he graduate, but he will graduate with honors, thus proving to his friends that he has made valuable use of his time while scaling the ladder of medical jurisprudence. Immediately after his graduation Dr. Kirkpatrick will locate at Mendon, near which place he was reared, for the practice of his profession. The COURIER bespeaks for the doctor a successful career as a physician and surgeon.
